

“As a mother comforts her child,
So will I comfort you...” - Isa. 66:13

“Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord
Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort.” - 2 Cor. 1:3

“But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us...” - 2 Cor. 7:6

WORSHIP AND BOW DOWN: SAFE AND SECURE

Ps. 23; John 10:11-18

TENDER SHEPHERD (OT) PS. 23

Although God is first introduced as our Tender Shepherd in Genesis 48:15, Psalm 23 is arguably the best-known passage in which God is portrayed as such.

PS. 23

Our Provider. Our loving Father. Our source of peace. Our Restorer. Our wise
Guide. Our confidence. Our Comforter.
Our Banquet on the battlefield.
Our generous Healer.
Our Dwelling-place

TENDER SHEPHERD (NT) JOHN 10:10-18

The Good Shepherd

The supreme Sacrifice

The tender Warrior

The One who knows us and is known by us

Eternal, enduring

DWELLING PLACE (OT) PS. 90- 91

He is/has been our Dwelling

He is the real Joy-giver, our Satisfaction

He is our Rest, our safe haven

He is our Security

He is our Rescue

He is the God who hears

DWELLING PLACE (NT)
JOHN 10:7-10; 15:1-8

He is our Access to the Father

He provides safe pasture

He is life abundant

He abides in us as we abide in Him

He is our source of real life and purpose

He is the source of Fruit that will last
