

A DISCLAIMER

Any attempt to preach a series on the character and nature of God will fall incomplete. The 8 sermons planned for this series will but scratch the surface of the One who 'wraps Himself in light as with a garment,' who 'touches mountains and they smoke.'

“Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before Him with thanksgiving and extol
Him with music and song. For the LORD is the great God, the great King above all gods.

In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him. The sea is His for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land.

Come, let us bow down in worship,
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker...”

“Everlasting God”

Explicit in the title is God’s eternal nature.
Implicit in the Hebrew is the eternal God’s unchanging nature.

See intro to El Olam
Gen. 21:32-34

“Everything true of God
on your best day ever is true of God in your darkest night.”

An essential truth Abraham relied on in order to proceed with the call of God in Gen 22. See 22:1-2

An essential truth we need to proceed with confidence into all that God calls us to do.

He is eternal, ensuring full knowledge of all things past, present and future. He is not bound by time.

He is unchanging, unshakable, immovable.

He is a firm foundation.
